FIELD NOTES

The list of players who have won the VSGA Amateur Championship and VSGA Junior Stroke Play Championship in the same year is very short.

Brinson Paolini accomplished the feat in 2008, beating Roger Newsom in the Amateur final before winning the Junior Stroke Play by a shot over Matt Harman. Liam Maclauchlan, who turned 16 in May, has a chance to join Paolini in the record books at Two Rivers. Maclauchlan (pictured) upended Justin Young 1 up in the 36-hole Amateur final at Birdwood Golf at Boar's Head Resort in June to become just the second 16-year-old to ever win the championship.

- Talon Dingledine, the stroke-play qualifying medalist at the Amateur, will look to add a Junior Stroke Play title to an impressive junior resume that includes a Junior Match Play title. Both Dingledine and James Gayle will play nearby at William & Mary this upcoming season.
- Josh Cummins, semifinalist at the Amateur, is in the field as he prepares to begin his college career at Longwood.
- Owen Love, also 16, advanced to the Amateur semifinals before falling to Young on the 18th hole.
- A pair of players in the field have committed to play at Columbia University: Neil Kulkarni and Charles Lange.
- Patrick O'Rourke advanced to the final of last year's VSGA Junior Match Play Championship, where he fell to Luke Libbey.
- Noah Maclauchlan teamed with brother Liam to win the MAPGA/VSGA Junior Four-Ball title in March.
- Ryan Hooker, who will turn 14 later this month, is the youngest player in the field. He shot a 69 in the second round last year.

USGA EXEMPTION EVENT

The winner of the VSGA Junior Stroke Play Championship will earn automatic qualification into the U.S. Junior Amateur, to be held at Trinity Forest GC in Dallas from July 21-26. VSGA members who have already qualified are Noah Maclauchlan, Neil Kulkarni, and Owen Love.
